13. He further stated that the Model Code of Conduct in respect of the Panchayat Elections has come into force from today i.e. 15.12.2015 with the announcement of the schedule in the area of Panchayati Raj Institutions where the poll is to be conducted. According to the guidelines of model code of conduct no party or candidate shall indulge in any activity which may cause differences or create mutual hatred or cause tension between different castes and communities, religious or linguistic. There shall be no appeal to caste or communal feelings for securing votes. The right of every individual for peaceful and undisturbed home life shall be respected. All parties and candidates shall avoid scrupulously all activities which are “corrupt practices” and offences under the election law, such as bribing of voters, intimidation of voters, impersonation of voters, canvassing within 100 meters of polling stations, holding public meetings during the 48 hours ending with the hour fixed for the close of the poll and transport and conveyance of voters to and from polling station etc. All the political parties, contesting candidates and Government employees must follow the model code of conduct meticulously to conduct free, fair and peaceful PRI elections in the State. No Officer/Official connected with the election work shall be transferred till the completion of election process besides adhering to other requirements of Model Code of Conduct with the announcement of this schedule for elections, he added.

14. He further stated that the directions are being issued to all the District Election Officers (Panchayat) to give the widest possible publicity to the above programme by munadi in villages, issue of press notes and other handouts and also by inserting paid advertisements in the two local news papers and making publicity through electronic media, so that more and more people may come to cast their vote and elect the members of Panchayati Raj Institutions for strengthening the democracy at grass root level.

15. Paid News: Sh. Sharma informed that State Election Commission is cautious of the role of media in democracy and it's further strengthening and made a request to the media- print as well as electronic to render their help and co-operation by refraining from allowing any undue publicity to a candidate in lieu of money or any other consideration. He emphasized that the Commission is aware of the menace of paid news and thus solicits the help and co-operation of media which is the best way to tackle it.

16. He further stated that State Election Commission will appoint Election Observers in each district to ensure smooth conduct of elections. The Observers will be asked to keep a close watch on every stage of electoral process to ensure free and fair elections. The Election Observers have to visit the district assigned at least four times, review necessary arrangements for the conduct of free, fair and peaceful elections, hold meetings with the D.C, R.O, S.S.P, D.S.P & other officers to review law and order situation and keep check on the complaints received by D.C, R.O, S.S.P, D.S.P etc.

17. He further stated that for the purpose of effective monitoring of the election expenditure of the candidates Election Expenditure Observers shall also be appointed in each district. Expenditure Observers shall have to keep close watch on the misuse of money power and suggest remedial action to prevent the evil practice.

18. He further stated that videography of sensitive or hyper sensitive polling stations will be got done, if required.

19. He further stated that the conduct of elections involves elaborate security management. It includes ensuring the security of polling personnel, security at the polling station, security of polling materials and also the overall security of the election process. The Home Department has already been requested to deploy adequate police personnel, so that the General Election of PRIs is conducted in a free, fair, peaceful, transparent and violence free manner.

20. He further stated that complaint cells shall also be established at the office of State Election Commission, Haryana and at District Headquarters to receive day to day complaints regarding elections and their speedy disposal.

21. He further stated that perfect communication plan will be set up at headquarter as well as district level, to enable concurrent intervention and mid course correction on the poll day.

22. He further stated that the instructions have already been issued to the District Election Officers (Panchayats) to establish the sufficient number of polling stations with all basic amenities such as ramps, first aid facility, shelter, drinking water, toilet etc., so that the electors including senior citizens, women and physically challenged persons may not suffer any inconvenience.

23. He further stated that directions have already been issued to the District Election Officers (Panchayats) not to depute the ROs/AROs/POs/APOs and other Polling Staff at his/her own village or ward. Polling parties be formed randomly, through special application software i.e. first at the time of allotting blocks to the employees actually to be deputed on polling duty and second at the time of sending polling parties to the polling booths allotted to them.

24. Sh. Sharma, State Election Commissioner, Haryana appeals to all the voters to participate to elect the Members of Panchayati Raj Institutions for strengthening the democracy at grass root level.
